OBJECTIVES/TEKS

(4.15) Writing/Writing Process. Students use elements of the writing process (planning, drafting, revising, editing, and publishing) to compose text. I can write a personal journal entry that may be used to help me in future writing.

PROCEDURE

1. will start a class discussion about keeping a diary. (Create an anchor chart about what the students know/expect concerning diaries/journals.)
2. Read some of my journal entries from when I was younger.
3. Brief class discussion.
4. Passout personal journals.
5. Have students decorate.

ASSESSMENT/EVALUATION

The student will have mastered the objective if they can accurately explain what journals can be used for. This can be in the form of an exit ticket or even a RAFT stem. Ex. Imagine you are a teacher who needs to explain to ~fellow teachers why journaling is ant. Compose an email that lists at least three reasons to encourage journaling in their classrooms.
